

I am writing to support keeping KLOVE on the air.
I consider their programming to be very important to the community.
I am a father of 2 girls, ages 11 and 13. I donate regularly to only my church and two other groups. KLOVE is one of them.

KLOVE provides enteraining, wholesome music that is good enough to compete with commercial music. I support KLOVE financially because they are an extension of my voice, my beliefs, and my values. They reach more people than I ever can.

The community benefits from having people learn good values, caring for others, and who will develop a desire to serve others.

Keep KLOVE.
